We Have

Pleasure in Announcing

Our Annual Spring Exhibition

Of Correct Millinery Fashions for

Wednesday and Thursday this Week.

Extreme novelties from the most perfect designers in Paris and London will be shown, but our main effort has been directed to making a worthy and elaborate display of modified styles embodying all the essentials which fashion demands, but illuminating these wild fancies which look well enough in fashion plates, but are impracticable, because hardly one lady in one hundred could wear them.

Common sense and the proverbial good taste of American women demand styles that are becoming to them as individuals; thus while Paris may set the pace and suggest the pattern or design, its decrees are no longer arbitrary. In a word, we accept the good, reject the extremes and create new patterns of our own.

The Display on

Wednesday and Thursday

Will include Trimmed Millinery of every description. Every thing in hats, shapes and trimmings that will be worn, Veilings, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, etc.

All Visitors Will be Welcome on Show Days.
